Our goal is to bring people together to promote genealogical research of Afro-American heritage on all levels - from beginner to professional.

Featured Presentation:

"Ivory Coast Meets America"

AAHGS-NE Presenter

Zadi Zokou

In his native country of Cote d'Ivoire (the Ivory Coast), Zadi Zokou (Antony Zokou Silvere) was a writer for educational television programming. His interest in the African American history and experience led him to DNA testing. The results blew his mind, and he decided to share his experience as much as he can, hoping it will inspire others.
