

The Black History Project of Lexington

Saturday, February 8, 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

At the Archives and Research Center (1332 Massachusetts Avenue)

Everyone has a story. Will you share yours with us?

Lexington Historical Society and the Association of Black Citizens of Lexington (ABCL) are teaming up to document the history of the black experience in town.

Collecting oral histories, photographs, documents, and artifacts will help historians build a clear and complete picture of Lexington's multiracial history.

On February 8th, at our inaugural event, we will be collecting stories and scanning photographs at the new Archives and Research Center at Munroe Tavern.

If you or someone you know is interested in contributing to this project, please contact the Historical Society office at programs@lexingtonhistory.org or 781-862-1703 or for more information.
