

LIFTING EVERY VOICE

with Songs of Freedom & Justice

MLK Day @ the Library

JAN. 15

(SATURDAY) @ 1:00 PM

SCAN ME!

VIRT UAL

Advance registration is required. Sign up online at caryllibrary.org/programs.

Join Cary Library and the Association of Black Citizens of Lexington for a unique look into the songs that inspired marchers during the Civil Rights Movement.

Aniece Kerr, Lexington resident and active participant in the Civil Rights Movement, will share a brief history of each song and their significance to the movement. The songs will be performed by Candice R. Henry, Nellie R. Henry, Gwendolyn Kerr, and Stephen Kerr.

There will be time for questions at the end of the program.

CARY LIBRARY

This program is made possible by Cary Library in partnership with the Association of Black Citizens of Lexington.

1874 Massachusetts Ave • Lexington, MA • 02420 • 781-862-6288 • CaryLibrary.org